DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 18 and 19 are objected to because of the following informalities: in claim 18, it appears that “a”, line 2, should be deleted; in claim 19, it appears that “a” should be deleted, line 2, should be deleted.. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 9, 10 and 12-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to claim 9, line 1, the recitation “the paper” lacks positive antecedent basis in the claims.

With respect to claim 10, line 1, the recitation “the controller” lacks positive antecedent basis in the claims.

Claim 12 appears to be incomplete. There are no “method” steps set forth in the claim.

With respect to claim 21, the recitation “motor are from segmental commutator rings and fed to a counter” is unclear.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gerber et al (U.S. Patent no. 5,289,669).

Gerber et al disclose a winder having an “extra section” including a gripper and a brake.

Claims 12-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Zibilich, Jr. et al.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-11 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Claim 21 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

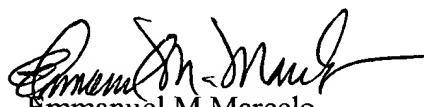

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Emmanuel M Marcelo whose telephone number is 703-305-6597.
